THE CIRCULAR TICKET.
The ticket in 1904: Corp. of ALTON B. PARKER, of New York. Attorney General—W. P. Thorne. Auditor—S. W. Hager. Treasurer—H. M. Bosworth. Sec. of State—H. V. McChesney. Sup. Pub.—J. H. Fuqua. Com. of Agri.—Hubert Vreeland. C. Court Appeals—Morgan Chinn. For Circuit Judge: S. G. KINNER. For Commonwealths Attorney: JOHN M. WAUGH. Circuit Clerk—Bert Shannon. Surveyor—John L. Hibbard.

Heavy snows were reported Tuesday from many points in the Northwest, and one man was frozen to death in South Dakota.

Will Hampton, a bright and excellent young man of Ashland, is being urged to make the race for the Legislature in this district. He is a son of Oliver Hampton.

After the introduction of a number of witnesses by both sides in the case of Curtis Jett at Cincinnati Tuesday, Judge Osborne overruled the motion of the defense for a change of venue and the selection of a jury was begun. After exhausting the regular panel Judge Osborne ordered the Sheriff to summon a special venire of fifty men.

Attorney W. H. Julian has received from Reuben N. Miller, formerly of Breckinridge county, but now of the Kentucky colony in Indiana, a claim for services as corporation clerk in the department of Secretary of State from March to June, 1900. Several such claims have been paid under decision of the Court of Appeals.

Gov. Durbin, of Indiana, made requisition of Gov. Jeff Davis of Arkansas, Tuesday for George Ryan, an alleged fugitive from justice. After hearing the case Gov. Davis notified Gov. Durbin that he would honor the requisition only upon condition that Gov. Durbin return to Kentucky W. S. Taylor and other fugitives desired by that State for the murder of Gov. Goebel. Otherwise, he would not honor the requisition. Gov. Durbin's reply has not yet been made.

Col. Thomas J. Landrum, of Louisville, prominent in Republican politics, thus expressed his views about the prospects of success for his party in Kentucky this fall: "I am not taking much interest in politics this year, but from my observations I do not see what possible chance the Republicans can have of defeating the Democrats. Gov. Beckham is a much stronger man than Col. Morris B. Belknap, and I think his election is assured. The Republicans made a great mistake when they turned Bradley and Wilson down."

Timber Tract for Sale.
1500 acre tract of land, mostly oak. None has ever been cut off. Accessible to road and not far from river. For further information address M. F. Conley, Louisville, Ky., or D. G. Kise, Georges Creek, Ky.

Ayer's Hair Vigor
Sometimes the hair is not properly nourished. It suffers for food, starves. Then it falls out, turns prematurely gray. Ayer's Hair Vigor is a hair food. It feeds, nourishes. The hair stops falling, grows long and heavy, and all dandruff disappears.

OUR BIG STATE FAIR

Will Draw Thousands to Owensboro September 21-26. $20,000 in Cash Premiums and Many of the Country's Best Amusement Shows Free.

LOW RAILROAD RATES

The biggest State Fair ever held South of the Ohio river will be opened at Owensboro, the hostess little Western Kentucky City, on Monday September 21st, lasting throughout the week. Cash premiums amounting to over $20,000 will be distributed for the best exhibits of Agricultural products, Mining products, Live Stock, Fowls, Pigeons, Hares and the Handiwork of the women of Kentucky or of other States. There will be the finest free amusement shows that the country affords for Fair purposes, including many feats of daring never before seen in this State.

In fact the State Fair will be almost on the proportions of a great exposition and those who win premiums may well feel proud of the honor besides the financial benefits derived.

SOME OF THE PREMIUMS.
$5,400 for beef cattle
1,600 for dairy cattle
4,200 for horses
800 for mules and jack stock
1,200 for swine
1,300 for sheep
1,000 for poultry, pigeons and Belgian hares
750 for women's department
4,000 for other exhibits.

SOME OF THE FREE ATTRACTIONS.
The famous Dr. Carver. Broncho John's wild west show. High Diving bicycle rider. Harrodsburg bicycle races. Horse racing (no betting). Football for state championship. Exhibition of educated horses, champion cake-walkers of the world. Burkamp's fine military band concerts.

Dare Devil Schreyer, the world's renowned high diver, will appear every afternoon in his wonderful high dive bicycle act, the first time ever presented in this State. He rides down a steep incline 60 ft. above the ground at the lower end, jumps from his wheel, and dives into a shallow tank 100 ft. from the base of the chute. This is one of the most thrilling and dangerous feats ever enacted by any person. This attraction alone is worth twice the price of admission to the fair.

All railroads entering Owensboro have granted a rate of one fare and 50 cents extra for the round trip. The L. & N. will run excursions from Louisville to Owensboro and return on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, leaving Louisville at 7:00 a.m. and arriving at Owensboro at 10:30 a.m. Returning train leaves Owensboro at 6:00 p.m. and reaches Louisville at 9:00 p.m.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

A lot size 40x125 feet sold in Pikeville a few days ago for $3,000. James Hogg's saw mill in Greenup county was destroyed by fire last week.

Little Irene Embrey, granddaughter of Rev. I. B. Hutchison, has smallpox at Catlettsburg. All other cases have about recovered.

There are a few more cases of typhoid. The Local Board of Health is getting water from all the wells and sending it to the State Health Board for analysis. Paintsville Items.

The postoffice at East Point, Johnson county, was robbed Sunday night, and Jerome Robinson of Catlettsburg took his bloodhounds there to try to run down the burglars.

Rev. Hiram Moore, of Ashland, is a candidate for the Legislature on the Prohibition ticket. He is eighty years old, but is remarkably well preserved. He was a preacher for fifty years.

Coon and Burg Kinner and sister Mrs. James P. McCloskey, were here Saturday on their way to Greenup, having been called there by a telegram stating that John Kinner's condition is worse. Catlettsburg Press.

In the Ragland oil field of Bath county, Andrew Denny, of West Virginia, was badly injured by being burned with oil. The fire in the engine, in which oil is used for fuel, had become low and Denny attempted to replenish it when the oil tank exploded.

M. P. S. Resolutions.

The following resolutions were adopted at the annual meeting of the State at Paintsville recently: Whereas we had two days of great pleasure by the proficiency and enthusiasm of our Grand Council General and Grand Officers. Resolved, First: That we respectfully request this Grand body to tender a vote of thanks to the Grand officers for their earnest and profitable work, and interest manifested in the promotion of the good work in extending it throughout the state at large the last past year. And also that when we close this Grand Lodge and year's work and depart for our places of abode, that we may seek to walk in that way and so demand ourselves that if we never meet again in the Grand Lodge here below that we may meet in a much grander Lodge conducted by the Supreme Council of the Universe.

Resolved, Second: That this Grand Lodge tender to the citizens of Paintsville, Kentucky, their most sincere thanks for their kindness while with them and to the K. O. T. M. and I. O. O. F. for their kindness extended to us by tendering us the use of their halls.

Resolved, Third: That we thank the editor of the Paintsville Herald for his interest in the Grand Lodge, for advertising its coming to this place, and for the five hundred excellent posters furnished and distributed free of charge.

Resolved, Fourth: That these resolutions be published in the Paintsville Herald, the Saxon News, and the Kentucky Mountaineer.

All of which is most respectfully submitted by the committee. W. D. ROYCE, G. B. STUBBS, MILTON FAIRCHILD.
